RE: Response for OPIC FOIA Request 2019-00003, NARA NGC18-179 & NGC18-353

Dear Ms. Best,

You filed Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA") requests with the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) for each agency's SF-311 forms. NARA referred the forms submitted by the Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) to our agency for direct response to you. OPIC received this referral on November 2, 2018 and assigned it FOIA Number 2019-00003. Please reference this number in all correspondence.

OPIC is releasing the records referred by NARA in part. Partial withholdings have been made under Exemptions b(5) and b(6). The FOIA contains nine exemptions which allow an agency to withhold information from release.

Exemption b(5) protects "inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency." 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5) (2012). These forms were submitted between OPIC and NARA, two federal agencies and are therefore inter-agency records. OPIC has used Exemption b(5) to withhold portions of the records which contain sensitive information about OPIC's security program.

Exemption b(6) of the FOIA protects information about individuals in "personnel and medical files and similar files" when the disclosure of such information "would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy." 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). The exemption was meant to be interpreted broadly and is not tied to the label of the file containing the information. United States Department of State v. Washington Post Co., 456 U.S. 595 (1982). Exemption b(6) is therefore applied when the private interest in keeping personal information is greater than the public interest in disclosure. Dep't of the Air Force v. Rose, 425 U.S. 352, 372 (1976). The only public interest relevant in a b(6) inquiry is the public interest in knowing what the government is up to. Dep't of Defense v. Fed. Labor Rel'n Auth., 510 U.S. 487, 497 (1994). OPIC has used Exemption b(6) to withhold the direct contact information of its staff. This information is tied to an individual and shows no government action. OPIC has also used Exemption b(6) to withhold the identity of the OPIC staff who were the contacts for the forms Revealing their identity would reveal their security clearances, which is personal information that does not reveal government action. The identity of the senior official in charge of OPIC's security has been left intact as this is the official who bears the responsibility of ensuring the agency's compliance.

This is a final agency response. You may contact me or the FOIA Public Liaison for any further assistance and to discuss any aspect of your request. Additionally, you may contact the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about FOIA dispute resolution services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is as follows:

Office of Government Information Services
National Archives and Records Administration
8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS
College Park, MD 20740-6001
Email: ogis@nara.gov
Phone: 202-741-5770 | Toll Free: 877-684-6448 | Fax: 202-741-5769

If you are not satisfied with OPIC's response to this request, you may administratively appeal by addressing a written appeal to the following:

Deputy General Counsel
Overseas Private Investment Corporation
1100 New York Ave., N.W.—12th Floor
Washington, D.C. 20527

Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 90 days of the date of this response to your request. Both the envelope and the letter should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT APPEAL." The appeal should clearly identify the agency determination that is being appealed and include the request number. If you are not satisfied with the results of any such appeal, judicial review is available to you in the United States District Court for the judicial districts in which you reside or have your principal place of business, or in the District of Columbia.

Sincerely,

Nichole Skoyles
Administrative Counsel

Part G - Forty-seven pages of State Department originated equities in OPIC project files were reviewed. Documents with information on the front and back were counted as one page. The Records Manager verified with State that these documents were declassified. State provided direction to the Records Manager for the appropriate labeling of these documents to indicate they were declassified.

OPIC is not a generator of classified information but ingests classified documents from other agencies, primarily the Department of State, in non-electronic form. OPIC had no formal self-inspections other than those that were ad hoc in nature and not comprehensive in scope.
